BORN.

LEWIS—At Waikeiki Turn, Kewalo, Honolulu, on October 27, 1901, to the wife of Charles Lewis, two sons.

RESPECT HIS MEMORY

The following resolutions of sympathy were adopted at the meeting of the Republican Territorial Committee:

"At this the first meeting of the Territorial committee of the Territory of Hawaii, it is fitting that we should enter upon our minutes our heartfelt sorrow at the death of our beloved President, William McKinley. He was a devoted patriot, a wise statesman, a just ruler and a good man. His loss was not that of this nation alone. His departure from this life was a loss to the human race. In this Territory, the sorrow of our citizens was deep and universal. The simplicity and goodness of his character won our love and drew us to him as unto a tender father. When he died there was none to utter aught but sorrow and regret, and to mourn with that noble wife, who is left in her loneliness at Canton to dwell upon the tenderness, the solemn awful tenderness of the parting scene. The bed of death, with all its stifled griefs, its noiseless attendance, its mute, watchful amenities. The last testimonies of expiring love. The feeble, fluttering, thrilling, oh how thrilling, pressure of the hand. The last fond look of the glazing eye, turning upon us even from the threshold of existence. The faint, faltering accents, struggling in death to give one more assurance of affection. Sorrowing as we do for the dead President, our hearts are full of sympathy for the afflicted widow, therefore, be it resolved, that we set aside a page of our minutes for this record, expressing our sense of bereavement at the death of President McKinley, and our sympathy with his noble widow, Mrs. McKinley."

"Resolved, That a copy of this record be sent to Hon. E. A. Hitchcock, Secretary of the Interior, to Hon. M. A. Hanna, chairman of the Republican National Committee, and Mrs. McKinley."

PRECIOUS BABIES.

Mother's comfort. Father's delight. God's dearest earthly gift to man.

What a happy sight; the healthy, robust vigorous, rollicking, always the same baby. What a sad sight; the puny, blue and pale, restless, crying baby. Nine out of ten times the child is troubled with worms. It shows it in convulsions, spasms, colic. And ten times out of ten Kickapoo Indian Worm Killer will drive out the pesky 'life-eating' worms. It is nature's remedy and as the healthy child is the natural child, it must make the sickly child healthy. The Indians living close to nature, discovered the remedy. For centuries they used it to make their babies rugged, powerful, fearless. What it has done for the child of the forest it will do for the child of the civilized-cure. That is what it has been doing for years. You can get it of your druggist for 25 cents. Be sure and get the genuine. The child's life is too precious to trifle with worthless substitutes. Hobron Drug Co., agents for the Kickapoo Indian Remedies.

TO STUDY NATIVE FISH.

Stanford University, Oct. 21.—Dr. Charles H. Gilbert, head of the department of zoology, is to leave the university December 1st to spend several months in deep sea investigation of fishes about the Hawaiian Islands. The work is on behalf of the United States Fish Commission, and is designed to complete the task allotted to the expedition of last summer, of which President Jordan and Dr. O. P. Jenkins of the physiology department were members. The researches of the latter party were confined to the shallow waters along the shore, where new varieties of fishes were found in abundance. Dr. Gilbert, however, will thoroughly explore all the fishing banks in the vicinity, making a specialty of deep sea specimens.

The Fish Commission steamer Albatross, which Prof. Gilbert has before used in explorations in the Gulf of California and the Behring Sea, will be placed at his disposal.

POLO SATURDAY'S

The opening game of the polo season will take place in Kapiolani park on Saturday afternoon next. Two games have been arranged for Saturday, the first to start at 3 p. m. The "Incus" will play the lawyers, or the "Quarantine" team. The Artillery team will play against a made-up team. Bamboo balls imported from India will be used. Bamboo sticks have also been secured but the players have not yet become used to them and will not play with them on Saturday.

Most, French Consul, $10; and Sociedade de Espirito Santo, $50. It was further reported that $436 had been realized from an entertainment given at St. Louis College. Besides money, a gavel had been received from Julius Asch, a fine piano from Judge Humphreys, a silver plate from F. G. Bettors and a silver badge for the sergeant-at-arms from A. W. Seabury, the financial secretary. Among those present at the meeting was Bishop Gulstan.
